

There's More!!

Growing up in a Christian home is a tremendous blessing that I am forever grateful for! My mom and dad were precious examples of the love of God and their marriage was envied by many. My earliest memories are of our family at the breakfast table each morning and my parents reading from the Bible and the Upper Room devotional. They also read every day from Oswald Chamber's book, "My Utmost for His Highest".

As a family, we were faithful members in the Methodist Church. My parents served as Sunday school teachers, choir members and served on various committees and Boards. They were respected by all who knew them and they would have been considered as "pillars" in that church. My daddy was a quiet man and a man of integrity so on that particular Sunday night when he did what he did, it shook up the entire congregation! What did he do?? He raised his arms and cried out in a loud voice, "God...I've got to have more of You!" I remember how I felt when I heard my daddy....I was stunned! In my 11 or 12 years of age I had never seen him like that before! He then went to the altar and knelt down followed by my mom, my two sisters and me. I don't remember what happened after that but I now know that at that moment in time everything in our lives changed!

There was a "holy discontent" that God put in our hearts and we sought to know Him more! The more we asked for the "more" He revealed His Holy Spirit to us. This stirring in our hearts was also going on in many hearts across the country in the early 1960's during a great move of God called the Charismatic Movement of the Holy Spirit. To this day my sisters and myself are still asking for more! My parents are experiencing in heaven the more in the very presence of the Father and all of His glory!! So you ask, "what's the more"?? Jesus!! He is the more! Just like the chorus of this song:

I want more! There's nothing in this world that can satisfy me like my Jesus! I am like an addict.... the more of Him I get the more of Him I want! If you are not satisfied just ask Him for more and He will surely give you freely of Himself! Psalms 107:9 says, "For He satisfies the longing soul, and fills the hungry soul with goodness."

Seeking Him earnestly! I love you all!

Rhonda

MORE THAN WONDERFUL

*For He's more wonderful than my mind can conceive
He's more wonderful than my heart can believe
He goes beyond my highest hopes and fondest dreams
He's everything that my soul ever longed for Everything He's promised and so much more
More than amazing, more than marvelous
More than miraculous could ever be
He's more than wonderful, that's what Jesus is to me*
