

Judas Asparagus

We all go through some tough days, and sometimes we just need to laugh and not be so serious in the midst of some very serious stuff. The Bible says in Proverbs 15:13, "A cheerful heart brings a smile to your face; a sad heart makes it hard to get through the day." MSG So, I pray that the Lord fill each of our hearts with His joy as we read this delightful child's version of the Bible.

(Reportedly written by a sixth-grader...in any event, it is an amusing piece and hopefully will bring a smile to your face.)

Judas Asparagus

In the beginning, which occurred near the start, there was nothing but God, darkness, and some gas. The Bible says, "The Lord thy God is one," but I think He must be a lot older than that.

Anyway, God said, "Give me a light!" and someone did. Then God made the world.

He split the Adam and made Eve. Adam and Eve were naked, but they weren't embarrassed because mirrors hadn't been invented yet.

Adam and Eve disobeyed God by eating one bad apple, so they were driven from the Garden of Eden ... Not sure what they were driven in though, because they didn't have cars.

Adam and Eve had a son, Cain, who hated his brother as long as he was Abel. Pretty soon all of the early people died off, except for Methuselah, who lived to be like a million or something.

One of the next important people was Noah, who was a good guy, but one of his kids was kind of a Ham. Noah built a large boat and put his family and some animals on it. He asked some other people to join him, but they said they would have to take a rain check.

After Noah came Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Jacob was more famous than his brother, Esau, because Esau sold Jacob his birthmark in exchange for some pot roast. Jacob had a son named Joseph who wore a really loud sports coat.

Another important Bible guy is Moses, whose real name was Charlton Heston. Moses led the Israel Lights out of Egypt and away from the evil Pharaoh after God sent ten plagues on Pharaoh's people.

These plagues included frogs, mice, lice, bowels, and no cable.

God fed the Israel Lights every day with Manicotti. Then he gave them His Top Ten Commandments. These include: don't lie, cheat, smoke, dance, or covet your neighbor's stuff.

Oh, yeah, I just thought of one more: Humor thy father and thy mother.

One of Moses' best helpers was Joshua who was the first Bible guy to use spies. Joshua fought the battle of Geritol and the fence fell over on the town.

After Joshua, came David. He got to be king by killing a giant with a slingshot. He had a son named Solomon who had about 300 wives and 500 porcupines. My teacher says he was wise, but that doesn't sound very wise to me.

After Solomon, there were a bunch of major league prophets. One of these was Jonah, who was swallowed by a big whale and then barfed up on the shore.

There were also some minor league prophets, but I guess we don't have to worry about them.

After the Old Testament came the New Testament. Jesus is the star of The New Testament. He was born in Bethlehem in a barn. (I wish I had been born in a barn too, because my mom is always saying to me, "Close the door! Were you born in a barn?") It would be nice to say, 'As a matter of fact, I was.'

During His life, Jesus had many arguments with sinners like the Pharisees and the Republicans. Jesus also had twelve opossums. The worst one was Judas Asparagus. Judas was so evil that they named a terrible vegetable after him.

Jesus was a great man. He healed many leopards and even preached to some Germans on the Mount. But the Democrats and all those other bad guys put Jesus on trial before Pontius the Pilot. Pilot didn't stick up for Jesus. He just washed his hands instead.

Anyways, Jesus died for our sins, then came back to life again. He went up to Heaven but will be back at the end of the Aluminum. His return is foretold in the book of Revolution.

Praying for great joy to overtake all of us in the midst of trials and sufferings! I love and bless you all in the Name of Jesus!

Summer time in the Soup Kitchen

We are ramping up for a busy summer feeding the multitudes! We feed so many children with school out for the summer, and it is delightful and rewarding, but a lot of extra work. Summer time is vacation time for volunteers and families that help serve, but we get no vacation from serving the poor.

We serve so many more during the summer months but with fewer volunteers, so I'm asking that you consider coming to help and bring your children with you! It's a great experience for them to serve the less fortunate. Also, finances are so much less in the summer and yet we are feeding so many hungry souls! Please prayerfully consider making a financial donation to enable us to do what we do.....loving and serving those whom the Lord so loves!!

We love to hand out books and small stuffed toys to the little ones so maybe you can clean out toy boxes at home and bring your nice gifts to put a smile on needy children's faces! Thank you!!

Pray, not because you need something, but because you have a lot to thank God for. Amen.
